Event Description

The City of Watertown, MN is a full-service community in the west metro with ample opportunities for development of all types. The community has driven results with a flexible and creative approach to ensuring deals get done. We invite you to come learn about what Watertown has to offer, and to experience how the City and its Economic Development Authority has, and will support your next residential, commercial, or industrial development project. This brief luncheon will give you the tools and connections with Watertown to ensure that your next project will happen here!
