3. Approve Minutes

Due to there not being a quorum, no action could be taken on this item.

3.A. Minutes From February 3, 2021

4. New Business

4.A. Elect Officers

Due to there not being a quorum, no action could be taken on this item.

4.B. Aging With Gusto - Three Part Learning Series From Senior Community Services

Tschudi provided a brief description of the Aging with Gusto series. The series has been offered in different communities throughout Carver County. The cost is $500. Commissioners discussed the difficulty of hosting an education session during COVID-19. Attendance has always been an obstacle in Watertown for these types of events. Raymond suggested waiting until the fall to possibly offer this in person.

5. Ageless Business

5.A. Vaccine Clinic Update

Fineran updated there were 100 vaccines given on Saturday, Feb 28 at the Watertown Community Center. Carver County Public Health assisted with the venue. Fineran said they will be back on the 27th of March to administer the second shot for those individuals. They are hoping more vaccine becomes available soon so they can offer the vaccine to more residents. Carver County was pleased with the community center space to be used for vaccinating.

5.B. AARP Tax Prep Update

Sandquist updated that the Delano Senior Center is offering an AARP tax preparation clinic similar to those being offered at Waconia, Shorewood and Chaska.

6. Updates From City

7. Updates From Commissioners

Paul Ericsson updated that the adult programming schedule will continue through the spring. The summer reading program for kids is being developed now. The Watertown library will be opening Monday, March 29 with three computers open and a reduced number of furnishings to comply to social distancing rules.

8. Adjourn

The Commission on Aging meeting adjourned at 3:50 p.m.
